

CHARLENE SULLIVAN, Piano

Charlene Sullivan holds a Bachelor of Music from Oral Roberts University and a Master of Church Music, with an emphasis in piano pedagogy, from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has taught piano, maintaining a successful studio for over 25 years.

Charlene is also an accomplished accompanist, having served as accompanist at Green Street Baptist Church, Guilford Baptist Church, and presently serves as music Director for Archdale Friends Meeting. In addition, she has been accompanist for the High Point Community Theatre, and is currently serving as the performance accompanist for the Trinity High School Chorus.

A member of the High Point Piano Teachers Association, Charlene's teachers have included Maurice Hinson and Don Hustad. She has a great relationship with her students, past and present, and enjoys teaching immensely!
