

ROBERT SPENCER, Guitar

Bob Spencer's career is an interesting and eclectic journey spanning over three decades in an amazing array of genres. In addition to being a highly sought-after guitarist, he performs on the bass, mandolin, harmonica, keyboard, flute, and saxophone.

Mr. Spencer graduated with a degree in Music Education from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro and initially taught in the Chapel Hill/Carrboro County school system. From '77 to '93, Bob toured 47 states with performers such as Billy "Crash" Craddock, Helen Cornelius and Jim Ed Brown, Southern Crescent, Sundance, and Johnny Fisher. During this period he appeared on "Hee Haw," Showtime, and in 23 performances at the Grand Ol' Opry.

In addition to numerous solo appearances, Bob performs with The Vicki Skinner Band, Soul Biscuit, Windfall, Mood Swingz, Espresso Brazil. As a talented vocalist, Bob served as Choir Director at Springfield Friends from '93 to '04, where he currently teaches guitar classes.

Bob achieved a No. 1 Country Music hit, "Peaches" in '85 with the band Southern Crescent. Bob released the instrumental CD Carolina Dreaming, available throughout NC. Please visit www.themoodswingzband.com to learn more.
