

Dianne B. Barbee

A former orchestra teacher in Greensboro (Grimsley Senior-Kiser Middle), Dianne Barbee has also taught band and orchestra in Grades 5-12 in Tennessee and Texas public schools.

As a private teacher, she has instructed piano, woodwinds, and strings, pre-school through adult, and twice was named Teacher of the Year by the Nashville Area Music Teachers Association, local chapter of Music Teachers National Association.

In addition to piano, her major wind instruments are oboe and flute, though she also plays and teaches clarinet, saxophone, and bassoon. A cellist, she currently instructs several violin and viola students in her home studio.

Ms. Barbee, a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso, has performed with chamber ensembles and symphony orchestras in Texas (El Paso, Midland-Odessa), Tennessee (Nashville) and in the Carolinas.
