

STEVE WARE, TUBA/BASS GUITAR

Steve Ware received his B.M. degree in Tuba Performance from the North Carolina School of the Arts where he studied with Robert Clark and David Mills. Steve has performed with regional symphony orchestras, wind ensembles, brass ensembles, musical theater orchestras, as well as the Traveling Broadway Musical Series. Steve is also an established freelance jazz bass player and can be seen and heard performing throughout the Triad. Currently, Steve is the Tuba Instructor at Greensboro College and is performing with the Stratford Brass Quintet and the Sunset Fourtet.