

Paige Morgan-Foy

Paige Morgan-Foy - Director, PK Dance - Paige has been involved in theater and dance since high school and has made it part of her working life. While living in Sanford, NC, she worked for Lee County Parks and Recreation, where she was instrumental in re-establishing the adult and children's theater program. Having received her NC State Childcare Credentials, she is currently the PK Dance Director for the High Point Ballet (for the past 12 years) and Taylor Dance, where she works with the pre-school aged children and also coaches the older dancers on character rolls. In her "spare time," Paige gets involved with costume creation and performs many character roles herself, such as Peter Pan.
